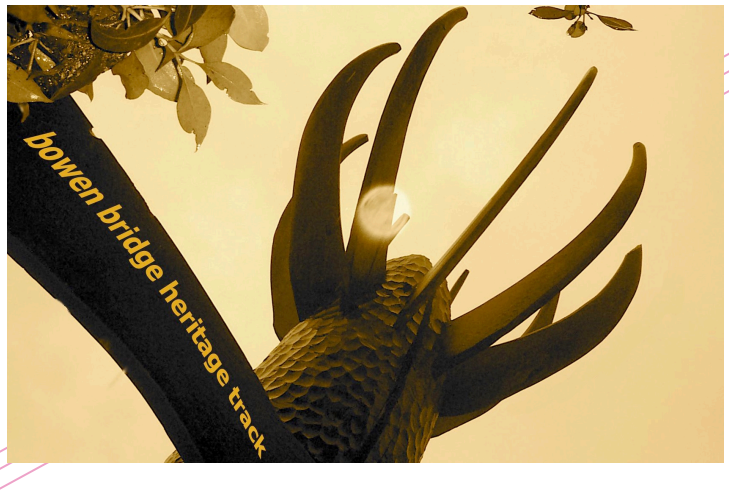
community >facilitation



In 2001, I conceived, coordinated & initiated events that evolved into Queensland's largest integrated community project to celebrate our Centenary of Federation ~ it received nationwide media coverage

The Minister for Environment launched, the Prime Minister visited, then 8 months later, the Premier offically opened the project with a 'Dance of the Trees'